Lap Yum Ba Zi is based on the interaction of the Lap Yum element of each pillar in the horoscope. The method we are going to study builds up a description of the environment giving a whole new way to interpret a chart. The elements and characters of the Lap Yum elements combine to create natural forms where you are able to see if there is a complete picture just as you would imagine a landscape. Lap Yum Ba Zi can give you great insight to the person's character and appearance.

After years of research Grand Master Chan brings us this beautiful course. He is the only one to teach this very early method that means to 'combine the sound'. He has also, updated the descriptions we had regarding the 60 Lap Yum elements, giving us more information on the interaction between them. There are 120 original examples from Grand Master Chan in the hand-outs, which are mostly special forms which will aid us to learn the different forms of each chart. In this Part 1 course – the Metal and Fire Lap Yum element horoscope examples are looked at in detail. Lap Yum Ba Zi Forms can be created for the Feng Shui of a property too!

Yearly prediction methods for 2020 Year of the Metal Rat. During this course Grand Master Chan offers different methods to detail accurate up and coming events for the following year. His yearly predictions on worldly affairs, government issues and the energy within a property or town have proven extremely accurate.

To determine the yearly forecast, he analyses the up and coming energy using different methods some of which are the Chee Ba, 9th Fate 24 Heaven Stars, Ba Zi and his unique Chue Yik method. The student will be amazed at how these methods all tie in together to make the yearly prediction. The serious student will find there is always so much more to be learnt from this course. There will also be clarifications on special dates and extra information to use according to the yearly Tung Sing

Personal Fate for 2020 ©

Special noticeAt Grand Master Chan's discretion, Module C and Advanced Teachers that attend this course with Grand Master Chan may go ahead and teach this Personal Fate 2020 to graduates in their country.

During this course you will learn how to calculate the Yearly Moving Life House Position using the 12 Mansion Method related to a person's Ba Zi. The course will concentrate on the many Sat San Stars for 2020, their meanings and the implications when they fall into certain mansions. Each time Grand Master Chan teaches this unique Chue Style course he adds more valuable information into the analysis. This method gives you details on many events relating to the coming year of a person's life. This could be related to relationships, children, finances or career. Calculating a person's Yearly Fate can help them understand when, how and where they could gain extra benefits. It also highlights what is best to avoid in that particular year. As from the Personal Fate 2019 course, Grand Master Chan has given us information on how to calculate the yearly San Sats without the use of the Tung Sing. He has dedicated years of research to providing the students with their own San Sat Charts. This course is very useful for students to help their clients understand the energy of the incoming year.

Grand Master Chan gives students the opportunity to ask questions relating to their own personal Moving Life House position. They may bring an example of their own chart or a member of their family to analyse in class. Please do not bring clients charts.

You will need to bring a 10,000-year Calendar.
